Is Summer Really Over?

Some 75 neighbors attended the Movable Feast, enjoying a beautiful early fall evening, good company, a barbecue buffet, and the ever-suspenseful Dining in Dorchester raffle. Thanks to everyone for the delicious array of appetizers and desserts they brought to the party. And a thousand thanks to our hosts, Joe and Nancy Gildea and Mike and Carole Horne, who went above and behind in preparing their carriage houses for the party.

AHA's next monthly meeting will be on Thursday, September 24, 7:30 p.m., at 69 Ocean Street, hosted by Gretchen and Miguel Suarez. On the agenda: Jenn Cartee, the new executive director of St. Mark's Area Main Street; Dave Cotter, our new Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services liaison; and Michelle Sanchez, principal of Epiphany School, who spoke to us earlier in the year and is returning with an update on Epiphany's plans for an early learning center on their property on Centre Street that includes the former (1859) Industrial School for Girls. Light supper and socializing at 7, as always.

New Ashmont Hill residents are especially invited and encouraged to attend monthly meetings as well as all other neighborhood events. We hope

Movable Feast Thanks

Many neighbors served on this year's Movable Feast committee, doing everything from overall planning, to chasing down gift certificates, to shop-

Thanks to St. Mark's Area Main Street for the loan of their tent, to Jay Larson for the loan of his tables, and to Andrea and Gary Barsomian-Dietrich for their beautiful flowers. Thanks also to the neighbors who responded to the request for help with set-up and clean-up: Margaret Lamb, Matt Malloy, Michael McCormick, Bob Rugo, Earl Taylor, and Donald Vaughan.
